This year's Nominating Convention is focused on selecting the Utah Republican Party's nominees for the upcoming election. As a state delegate, you will vote to determine the Party's nominees for key offices including: U.S. House of Representatives, State Senate, State House of Representatives, and State Board of Education.

In addition to selecting our party nominees, delegates will be asked to vote on proposed constitution amendments, resolutions, bylaw amendments, and platform amendments; these are all linked on the agenda for your review. These items directly influence how our Party functions and are essential to maintaining a clear, organized, and principled structure. We encourage you to review all candidate materials and proposed business in advance so you can participate fully at the convention.
